Easter Program 2026

Our Lord has written
the promise of resurrection,
not in books alone,
but in every leaf in springtime.

~ Martin Luther

Easter, or Pascha, is the most significant celebration in the Orthodox calendar. In Cyprus, it is a season defined by devotion, warmth, and enduring tradition. Known as 'Lambri,' - the Bright One - it commemorates the Resurrection and brings a spirit of renewal across the island.

From Lazarus Saturday to Easter Sunday, the island is marked by solemn ceremonies and time-honored traditions that mirror the rhythms of spring.

Holy Week

reflection and preparation

Throughout Holy Week, families focus on devotion and fasting, in preparation for the celebrations ahead.

Maundy Thursday

Homes fill with the scent of freshly-baked flaounes, the traditional cheese pastries of the season, while eggs are dyed red in symbol of Christ's sacrifice.

Good Friday (Epitafios)

The Holy Sepulcher is adorned with flowers, and evening processions move solemnly through neighborhoods in reverent reflection.

The Resurrection

light and renewal

The spirit of Easter culminates on Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday.

Holy Saturday

Black veils are lifted in churches, marking the end of mourning.

Midnight Service

The Holy Light is shared among the faithful, who carry the flame home as a blessing.

Lambratzia

Bonfires are lit in symbolic triumph of light over darkness.

Easter Sunday

Celebration and Feast

With the fasting of Holy Week concluded, families gather in joyful celebration.

Breaking the Fast

Red eggs are cracked in friendly competition, each seeking the strongest shell.

Traditional dishes

Flaounes are joined by avgolemono soup and other seasonal fare, bridging the solemnity of Lent with the abundance of the feast.

Beyond Easter

tradition and community

Easter in Cyprus extends beyond a single day. Children sing, neighbors gather for traditional games, and communities reconnect, sustaining a rich heritage that has shaped the island for generations.

More than a holiday, Easter is a celebration of renewal, faith, and shared experience. We invite you to take part in this meaningful season and discover the warmth and vitality of Cyprus at its most authentic.
